Real estate agent (rattling off description of house to Mrs. Bradley, a prospective tenant)—Here's the kitchen—splendid room—all modern conveniences—hardwood floor—Mr. Bradley (interrupting)—Oh, it won't do at all. My present kitchen has a softwood floor, and the breakage of dishes even on that is something frightful.

Forced Into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for coughs and colds, it dispels hoarseness and sore throat. Cures grip, bronchitis, hemorrhages, asthma, croup, whooping cough, etc. 50c and $1.00 trial bottle free, guaranteed by H. C. Miller.

"I understand that you said some of my jokes were as old as the hills?" interrogated the struggling humorist in crestfallen tones. "My dear sir, you have been misinformed," laughed the busy editor. "What I said was that some of the hills were as old as your jokes."—Chicago News.

Kills Her Fox of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, etc., unequalled. Only 50c at H. C. Miller's.

Pastor—I was so sorry for your wife during the sermon this morning, doctor. She had such a dreadful fit of coughing that the eyes of the whole congregation were fixed upon her. Doctor—Don't be unduly alarmed. She was wearing her new hat for the first time. —Fillegende Blaetter.

A Scalded Boy's Stricks

horrified his grandmother, Mrs. Maria Taylor, of Nebo, Ky., who writes that, when all thought he would die, Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured him. Infalible for burns, scalds, cuts, corns, wounds, bruises. Cures feverishness, boils, eruptions, chilblains, chapped hands. Soon roots Piles. 25c at H. C. Miller's.

"Did you write this report on my lecture, 'The Curse of Whiskey'?" "Yes, madam." "Then kindly explain what you mean by saying, 'The lecturer was evidently full of her subject'."

The Yeager Family.

Once in a life time a remedy is discovered that is so productive of good results that a whole family can cure itself of many things. Mrs. J. W. Yeager, of Belme, Ark., and her entire family suffered terribly from malaria, constipation and stomach trouble generally, and she writes they were all cured with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Naturally, she is glad to have us tell our readers about it.

It is absolutely guaranteed to do what is claimed, and if you want to try it before buying, send your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by all druggists at 50c and $1 a bottle.

A STRONG TESTIMONIAL

FROM SHERIFF UNION CO.

Maynardsville, Tenn., Nov. 24, 1908
To whom it may concern:

Be it known that my wife was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism in both feet for four years. During this time her feet were swollen so much that she could not walk but with great difficulty nor put on her shoes, and she suffered very much.

I procured for her a bottle of "Rheumatol," and to our surprise and joy this one bottle of medicine with God's blessing entirely removed the swellings of her feet, and relieved the pain. We are truly thankful for this good medicine and gladly recommend it to our friends as a cure for rheumatism.

FRED BAILEY, Sheriff.
Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 24th day of November, 1908.

"Did you ever have appendicitis?" said the insurance man. "Well," answered the skeptic, "I was operated on. But I never felt sure whether it was a case of appendicitis or a case of professional curiosity."

Why We Are Stronger.

The old Greeks and Romans were great admirers of health and strength; their pictures and statuary made the muscles of the men stand out like cords.

As a matter of fact we have athletes and strong men—men fed on fine strength making food such as Quaker Scotch Oats—that would win in any contest with the old Roman or Greek champions.

It's a matter of food. The finest food for making strength of bone, muscle and nerve is fine oatmeal. Quaker Scotch Oats is the best because it is pure, no husks or stems or black specks. Farmers' wives are finding that by feeding the farm hands plentifully on Quaker Scotch Oats they get the best results in work and economy. If you live in a hot climate buy Quaker Scotch Oats in hermetically sealed tins. It keeps sweet and fresh. 2

The Twilight of Life.

The muscles of the stomach in old age are not as strong or active as in youth and in consequence old people are very subject to constipation and indigestion. Many seldom have a bowel movement without artificial aid. Many also have unpleasant eructations of gas from the stomach after eating. All this can be avoided by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which permanently regulates the bowels so that passages come naturally, and so strengthens the stomach that food is digested without discomfort.

It is absolutely guaranteed to do what we claim, and if you want to try it before buying, send your address for a free sample bottle to Pepsin Syrup Co., 119 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill. It is sold by all druggists at 50c and $1 a bottle.

THE SUPREME TEST.

"Stillingia," said the young man, his voice tremulous with suppressed emotion, "are you going to put me on the piazza? Is this where I get off?"

Unused tears were in the lovely maiden's eyes.

If she had shed them they would not have been in her eyes.

But let that pass.

"I have not said so, Geoffrey," reluctantly she answered, "in so many words. But—"

"Listen, Stillingia!" he burst forth impetuously. "Is there any other guy that's got the inside track? Am I playing second fiddle to some snooze with plastered hair, an ingrowing chin, and a pull at the bank? If so—"

"No, Geoffrey, but—"

"Then, why the Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego are you standing me off? I may not be a pampered child of fashion, but I'm on the dead level. I've never been caught with the goods. Girlie, ever since I was a kid you've been my one best bet, and you know it. I'm Old Faithful from Kleingenville. I've trailed along in your wake like a night police reporter on track of a lovely holdup, or a bag collector after a gorgeous butterfly. All my life I've been building bungalows in the air for you to move into some day. I'd rather look at your tiny pet than to eat four square meals. You are the niftiest, peachiest dream that ever—"

"Geoffrey!" interrupted the beautiful girl, standing erect before him, pale, but calm and resolute. "I know you love me, and I am touched as never before by your devotion, but something seems to tell me that we are not truly mated—"

Here her voice faltered.

"Geoffrey," she said, recovering herself, "we must not make a mistake that will wreck our whole lives! I must ask you one question."

"Well?"

"Which side do you take in the north pole controversy?"

DO IT NOW.

Johnson City People Should Not

Wait Until it is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, grave or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, head ache, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

C. N. Brown, real estate dealer, living on Spring street, Johnson City, Tenn., says, "Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I procured a box at the Patton Drug Co. My wife used them and I am glad to state that they acted up to every claim made for them. I have since heard her speak of Doan's Kidney Pills in the highest terms and have also heard a great many other people recommend them as a remedy of merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
